

Särmä etiquette

Consider others

Let others enjoy the event in peace. Everyone has the right to be themselves and celebrate safely. Any form of harassment, discrimination, or inappropriate behavior is not tolerated at the event.

Arrive early

It is recommended to arrive at the afterparty right when the doors open to avoid missing the gig, as queues are expected. The event organizers are not responsible for missed performances. Please queue properly and wait your turn.

Respect the event area

Treat the event area with respect. Keep the area clean and dispose of trash properly. Follow the organizers' instructions and the boundaries designated for the area. Bringing your own beverages to the area is not allowed.

Offer help

Do not hesitate to offer help to those who need it! Feel free to contact the event organizers, security staff, or harassment contact persons if you encounter inappropriate behavior or harassment.

In an emergency, call the emergency number 112.

You are responsible for your behavior

By participating in the event, you agree to follow the Särmä Etiquette and general rules. Violating these may result in removal from the event.

